REPORT OF THE JOINT COMMITTEE ON THE CONSTITUTION (SEVENTY-THIRD AMENDMENT) BILL, 1991 (INSERTION OF NEW PART IXA AND ADDITION OF XII SCHEDULE)

CHAPTER I

1.1. I, the Chairman of the Joint Committee to which the Bill* further to amend the Constitution of India viz. the Constitution (Seventy-third Amendment) Bill, 1991 (Insertion of new part IXA and addition of XII Schedule) was referred, having been authorised to submit the Report on their behalf, present this Report.

1.2. The Bill was introduced in the Lok Sabha on 16 September, 1991. The motion for reference of the Bill to a Joint Committee of both Houses of Parliament was moved in Lok Sabha by Smt. Sheila Kaul, Cabinet Minister in the Ministry of Urban Development on 20 December, 1991 and was adopted (Appendix—I).

1.3 The Rajya Sabha concurred in the said motion on 21 December, 1991 (Appendix—II).

1.4 The message from Rajya Sabha was published in Lok Sabha Bulletin—Part II on 24 December, 1991.

1.5. The Committee held 13 sittings in all. The first sitting was held on 27 January, 1992. At this sitting, the Committee considered their future programme of work and decided to invite memoranda containing comments/suggestions on the provisions of the Constitution (Seventy-third Amendment) Bill, 1991 by 24 February, 1992, from the State Governments/Union Territory Administrations, Bar Councils/Bar Associations, Chambers of Commerce and other Organisations, individuals etc. interested in the subject-matter of the Bill for their consideration.

The Committee further decided that a detailed questionnaire on the subject might be prepared by the Ministry of Urban Development which could be forwarded to these organisations, bodies, individuals etc. to enable them to submit their memoranda to the Committee.

The Committee further decided to have oral evidence on the provisions of the Bill from interested parties and authorised the Chairman to select parties/individuals etc. for the purpose after receipt of memoranda/questionnaires.

Accordingly, a Press Communiqué inviting memoranda and requests for oral evidence was issued on 28 January, 1992. The Director-General, All India Radio and the Director-General, Doordarshan, New Delhi were also requested to broadcast the contents of the Press Communiqué from all stations of All India Radio/telecast it from all Doordarshan Kendras on three successive days in English and Hindi and in regional languages.

*Published in the Gazette of India, Extraordinary, Part II, Section 2, dated the 16 September, 1991.

1.6 As per decision taken by the Committee, a circular letter inviting memoranda containing comments/suggestions on the provisions of the Bill and requests for oral evidence was also issued to the Chief Secretaries of all the State Governments/Union Territory Administrations, Bar Councils/Bar Associations/Municipal Corporations|Municipal Committees and individuals etc.

1.7 At their sitting held on 13 February, 1992, the Committee felt that as the Press Communiqué did not receive wide publicity as anticipated, an advertisement in the national and regional languages dailies besides Hindi and English might be issued. Accordingly, an advertisement inviting memoranda was given in National dailies by the Ministry of Urban Development.

The Committee also considered requests received from various Associations|Organisations, individuals etc. for extension of time for submission of memoranda on the provisions of the Bill. The Committee, accordingly extended the time for submission of memoranda upto 31 March, 1992.

1.8 40 Memoranda and 36 replies to questionnaire containing comments|suggestions on the provisions of the Bill were received by the Committee from various Associations|Organisations, Chambers of Commerce and individuals etc. (Vide list at Appendix III & IV).

1.9. At their sittings held on 31 March, 8 and 22 April, and 6 May, 1992 at Delhi the Committee took oral evidence of 10 local organisations and individuals. A list of persons who gave evidence before the Committee is at Appendix V.

1.10. The following three Sub-Committees formed by the Committee at their sitting held on 22-4-1992, visited different places in the Country from 25 May to 2 June, 1992 and held discussions with the officials of the State Governments, representatives of various organisations and individuals:

Sub-Committee I: Calcutta, Guwahati, Shillong, Patna, Lucknow, and Shimla.

Sub-Committee II: Bhubaneshwar, Hyderabad, Madras, Pondicherry, Trivandrum, Cochin and Goa.

Sub-Committee III: Jaipur, Ahmedabad, Bhopal, Indore, Bombay and Bangalore.

The Committee also held discussions on 14 June, 1992 at Port Blair with the representatives of the Administration of Andaman and Nicobar Islands.

1.11. At their sitting held on 19 June, 1992, the Committee decided to constitute a Sub-Committee of six members to consider the Chapter in the Report of the Committee on Municipal Finance. The Sub-Committee held their sitting on 25 June, 1992 and approved the draft Chapter with slight modifications.

1.12. The Report of the Committee was to be presented to the House by the last day of the First week of the Budget Session, 1992, i.e. 28 February, 1992. The Committee were granted one extension for presentation of the Report on 28 February, 1992 upto the last day of the first week of the Monsoon Session, 1992 i.e. 10 July, 1992.

1.13. The Committee considered the Bill Clause-by-Clause at their sittings held on 17, 18 and 19 June, 1992.

1.14. The Committee decided at their sitting held on 3 July, 1992, that evidence rendered before them might be printed and laid on the Tables of both the Houses of Parliament.

The Committee further decided that two sets of memoranda containing comments/suggestions on the provisions of the Bill, received by the Committee might be placed in the Parliament Library, after the report had been presented, for reference by the Members of Parliament.

1.15. The Committee considered and adopted the Report at their sitting held on 3 July, 1992.

1.16. The observations of the Committee with regard to the principal changes proposed in the Bill are detailed in the succeeding paragraphs.

Article 243P—Definitions

1.17. The Committee have included in the Bill new articles 243ZD and 243ZE relating to the District Planning Committee and Metropolitan Planning Committee respectively in which terms "Metropolitan area" and 'Panchayat' have been used. The definitions of 'Metropolitan area' and 'Panchayat' have, therefore, been included in this article as clauses (b) and (e) respectively. Further, the definition of "Municipal area" as given in clause (c) has been slightly modified to link it with article 243Q whereunder the Municipal area for a Nagar Panchayat, a Municipal Council or a Municipal Corporation will be notified by the Government of a State. Other clauses in this article have been re-lettered accordingly.

Article 243R—Composition of Municipalities

1.18. The Committee feel that the language of this article should be brought in line with the language of article 243S and the representation of various persons in a Municipality should be included in one clause. This article has been amended accordingly. The existing clause (1) has been omitted and existing clause (2) has been renumbered as clause (1). Existing clauses (3) to (5) have been clubbed in the new clause (2).

1.19. The Committee are of the opinion that there should be representation of Members of Parliament and of the State Legislature in municipalities. Sub-clauses (ii) and (iii) have, therefore, been added to new clause (2) to provide for representation of Members of Parliament and of the State Legislature.

Article 243S—Constitution and Composition of Committees at Ward level or other levels.

1.20. There is a growing feeling that in the larger municipal bodies the citizens do not have easy access to the elected representatives since the ward-sizes become very large. The Committee therefore is of the view that within the territorial area of Municipalities having a population of three lakhs or more Wards Committees should be constituted. The details relating to the composition and the territorial area of the Wards Committee and the manner of filling seats in such Committees can be left to the State Legislatures. Further, the Committee feel that a member representing a ward in a Municipality, should be a member of the Wards Committee. The Committee are also of the opinion that where a Wards Committee consists of one ward, the member representing that ward in the Municipality should be the Chairperson of the Wards Committee. However, where a Wards Committee consists of two or more wards, one of the members representing such wards in the Municipality should be elected by the members of the Wards Committee to be its Chairperson. The article 243S has been amended accordingly.

1.21. The Committee also feel that nothing contained in the provisions of this article should prevent the Legislature of a State from making any provision for the constitution of committees in addition to the Wards Committees. A provision has been made in article 243S accordingly.

Article 243T—Application of certain articles of Part IX to municipalities.

1.22. The Committee feel that all the provisions of Part IX relating to Panchayats, which have been made applicable to Part IXA proposed to be inserted by this Bill should be reproduced in full with suitable modifications. Accordingly, article 243D [(except the provisos to clause (4)] of Part IX has been incorporated here as article 243T.

1.23. The Committee are of the view that the rotation of reserved seats should not be made mandatory and it should be left to the State Governments to rotate such seats. Clauses (1) and (3) of this article have been amended accordingly.

Article 243U—Duration of Municipalities etc.

1.24. The Committee feel that an election to constitute a Municipality should be completed before the expiry of its duration of five years and if dissolved earlier within six months of its dissolution. However, if the Legislature of a State Passes a resolution that due to drought, flood, earthquake or any other natural calamity or emergency, the election cannot be held within the said period of six months, the election can be postponed but must be held within a period of one year from the date of dissolution of the Municipality. The Committee also feel that an enabling provision may be made for the State Legislatures to provide by law for suspension or dissolution of a Municipality and where a Municipality is suspended or dissolved, it shall be given a reasonable opportunity of being heard by an authority to be constituted by such law. In case a Municipality is suspended, such suspension should not affect the continuation of the Wards and other Committees constituted under article 243S. Article 243E of Part IX has accordingly been incorporated as article 243U with suitable amendments to cover the above aspects.

Article 243V—Disqualifications for membership

1.25. The Committee feel that existing sub-clause (a) to (d) of clause (1) are covered by the provisions of sub-clause (e) which relates to disqualifications for elections to the Legislature of the State. Further, the Committee feel that with the advent of education, the level of awareness amongst people in small towns and cities has gone up and a person of the age of twenty-one years is responsible enough to hold a public office. The Committee are, therefore, of the opinion that all persons who have attained the age of twenty-one years should be eligible for election to the Municipalities. The Committee are also of the view that the disputes relating to disqualification should be referred for the decision of such authority and in such manner as the Legislature of a State may by law, provide. Article 243F of Part IX has accordingly been incorporated as article 243V after omitting sub-clause (a) to (d) of clause (1) and relettering the existing sub-clauses (e) and (f) as sub-clauses (a) and (b). Other modifications have also been made to cover the above-mentioned aspects.

Article 243W—Powers, authority and responsibilities of Municipalities, etc.

1.26 The existing article 243V has been renumbered as article 243W without any other changes.

Article 243X—Power to impose taxes by, and Funds of, the Municipalities.

1.27. Article 243H of Part IX has been incorporated as article 243X with slight modifications so as to substitute the expression "Panchayat" by the expression "Municipality".

Article 243Y—Constitution of Finance Commission to review financial position

1.28. Article 243I of Part IX has been incorporated as article 243Y. The changes made in this article have been dealt with in detail in Chapter II of this report.

Article 243Z—Form of accounts of Municipal Corporations and audit of such Corporations.

1.29. Existing article 243U has been renumbered as article 243Z without any other changes.

Article 243ZA—Powers of Legislature of a State to make provisions with respect to election to Municipalities.

1.30. The Bill provides that elections to Municipalities are to be conducted under the supervision, direction and control of the Chief Electoral Officer of the State, who is accountable to and a functionary of, the Chief Election Commissioner so far as conduct of elections to Parliament and State Legislatures is concerned. The Committee feel that it should be left to the Legislature of a State to make provisions with respect to all matters relating to the elections to the Municipalities. Article 243K of Part IX has accordingly been modified and incorporated as article 243ZA.

Article 243ZB—Application to Union Territories

1.31 The Committee feel that the provisions of Part IX—A proposed to be inserted by this Bill, should apply to all Union territories and that the enabling power of the President, not to apply the said provisions to any Union territory, should be omitted. The President should only have the power to apply the said provisions to any Union territory or part thereof subject to such exceptions and modifications as he may specify by public notification. Article 243L of Part IX has accordingly been modified and incorporated as article 243ZB.

Article 243ZC—Part not to apply to certain areas

1.32 The existing article 243W has been renumbered as article 243ZC. The Committee feel that the power of Parliament to extend the provisions of Part IX-A proposed to be inserted by this Bill to the Scheduled Areas and the tribal areas should be exercised only if the Legislature of the concerned State passed a resolution to that effect. Clause (2) of this article has been amended accordingly.

Article 243ZD—Committee for district planning.

1.33. The planning and allocation of resources at the district level for the Panchayati Raj institutions are normally to be decided at the Zila Parishad. In regard to urban areas, the municipal bodies discharge certain defined functions within their respective areas. However some important questions may arise which concern the urban-rural interface. There is need to take an overall view in regard to development of the district as a whole and decide on allocation of investment between rural and urban institutions. The Committee therefore feel that there should be a provision for Constitution of a District Planning Committee in every State at the district level with a view to consolidating the plans prepared by the Panchayats and the Municipalities in the district as a whole. In order to impart a democratic character to such Committees, not less than four-fifths of the total number of members of these Committees should be elected members of the Panchayat at the District level and of the Municipalities in the district in proportion to the ratio between the population of the rural areas and of the urban areas in the district. The other details relating to composition of the said Committees the manner of filling the seats therein, the functions relating to district planning to be assigned to such Committees and the manner in which the Chairpersons of such Committees shall be chosen may be left to the State Legislatures keeping in view the local conditions. The District Planning Committee, in preparing the draft development plan, should have regard to matters of common interest between the Panchayats and the Municipalities including spatial planning, sharing of water and physical and natural resources, the integrated development of infrastructure and environmental conservation; the extent and type of available resources whether financial or otherwise. While preparing such the draft development plan, the said Committee should also consult such institutions and organisations as the State Governments may specify. The Draft Development plan so prepared shall be forwarded to the State Government concerned by the Chairperson of the Committee. Article 243ZD has been inserted accordingly.

Article 243ZE—Committee for Metropolitan Planning

1.34 There are 23 metropolitan cities in the country where the metropolitan area would encompass not only the main city corporation but also a number of other local bodies, both urban and rural surrounding the main city corporation. By the end of the century, this number may be about 45. These metropolitan areas influence the life and economy of the surrounding areas in several ways. To ensure that there is an orderly development of the fringe area, proper plans for these areas need to be drawn up in association with the plan of the main city. Considerable investments in these cities are also undertaken by Central and State Government agencies. It is necessary to coordinate these investment plans with the developmental plans and requirements of the metropolitan city.

1.35 There is, therefore, need for a suitable planning mechanism which would take care of the interaction between the various local bodies both rural and urban in such metropolitan areas. At present, the system that is adopted in many metropolises is the creation of a metropolitan development authority. The functions assigned to the metropolitan development authority differ from case to case. In some cases, they are only planning bodies while in some cases they take on executive functions particularly of major schemes. Further, at present, these bodies are not democratic institutions. They are nominated by the Government. While care is taken that there are some representation on the body from different urban local bodies in the area, the forum is still not a democratic one wherein the opinions of the local bodies in the region can be articulated.

1.36 The Committee therefore feel that there should be a provision for constitution of a Metropolitan Planning Committee to prepare a draft development plan for the Metropolitan area as a whole. In order to impart democratic character to the said Committees not less than two-thirds of the members of such Committees should be elected by and from amongst, the elected members of the municipalities and Chairpersons of the Panchayats in the metropolitan area in proportion to the ratio between the population of the municipalities and of the Panchayats in that area. The other details relating to composition of the said Committees, the manner of filling the seats therein, the representation in such Committees of Government of India and the Government of the State and other organisations and institutions, the functions relating to planning and co-ordination for the Metropolitan area to be assigned to such Committees and the manner in which the Chairpersons of such Committees shall be chosen may be left to the State Legislatures. The Metropolitan Planning Committee should, in preparing the draft development plan, have regard to the plans prepared by the Municipalities and the Panchayats in the Metropolitan area, matters of common interest between the Municipalities and the Panchayats including coordinated spatial planning of the area, sharing of water and other physical and natural resources the integrated development of infrastructure and environmental conservation, overall objectives and priorities set by the Government of India and the Government of the State; the extent and nature of investment likely to be made in the Metropolitan area by agencies of the Government and other available resources whether financial or otherwise. The said Committee should also consult such institutions and organisations as the State Government may specify. The draft development plan so prepared shall be forwarded to the State Government concerned by the Chairperson of the said Committee. Article 243 ZE has been inserted accordingly.

Article 243 ZF— Continuance of existing laws and Municipalities

1.37 Article 243N of Part IX has been incorporated here as article 243 ZF with slight modifications so as to change the reference to the "Constitution (Seventy-Second Amendment) Act, 1992" to "Constitution (Seventy-third Amendment) Act, 1992."

Article 243 ZG— Bar to interference by courts in electoral matters

1.38 Article 243-O of Part IX has been incorporated here as article 243ZG with slight modification to change the reference to article "243 K" to article "243 ZA".

Clause 3

1.39 The Committee feel that amendment should be made in article 280 relating to constitution of Central Finance Commission so that the said Commission should make recommendations to the President as to the measures needed to augment the Consolidated Fund of a State to supplement the resources of the Municipalities in the State on the basis of the recommendations made by the Finance Commission of the State. Clause 3 has accordingly been inserted in the Bill. The need for this amendment has been explained further in detail in Chapter II of this Report.

Clause 4

1.40 The existing clause 3 has been renumbered as clause 4. The Committee feel that the Twelfth Schedule proposed to be inserted by clause 4 should also cover subjects relating to protection of the environment; public amenities including street lighting, parking lots, bus stops and public conveniences; regulation of slaughter houses and tanneries. Item 8 of the Twelfth Schedule has been amended accordingly and new items 17 and 18 have been inserted in the said Schedule.

Clause 1 and Enacting Formula

1.41 The amendments made are of formal character.

CHAPTER IIARTICLE 243Y AND CLAUSE 3—MUNICIPAL FINANCE

2.1 With the increasing pace of urbanisation, the municipal bodies responsible for providing a range of services to ensure a healthy environment have been unable to provide these services adequately resulting in growth and proliferation of slums, unplanned colonies, deteriorating civic services virtually culminating in a total urban chaos. It is now almost universally acknowledged that this is primarily on account of the woefully inadequate resources at the disposal of the municipal bodies/corporations.

2.2 Having regard to this inadequacy, the Bill had made provisions for putting on a firmer footing the relationship between the State Governments and the Urban Local Bodies in regard to functions and taxation powers and the arrangement for revenue sharing. Specifically Article 243T read with 243H of the Constitution (Seventh-second Amendment) Bill (incorporated as article 243X in the present Bill), make provisions for the Legislature of a State to provide by law the power to various municipalities to levy, collect and appropriate such taxes and duties, tolls and fees in accordance with the procedures and such limits as prescribed. It also provides for assignment of taxes etc. collected by the State Government to the municipalities and for making grants-in-aid by the State to the municipalities. Article 243T read with Article 243T of the Constitution (Seventy-second Amendment) Bill (incorporated as article 243Y in this Bill) provides for the constitution of a Finance Commission to review the financial position of the municipalities and to make recommendations in regard to the principles for the distribution of revenues between the States and the municipalities, for the determination of the taxes, duties etc. which may be assigned to the municipalities, and for grants-in-aid to be given by the State to the municipalities. The Committee, however, feel that these provisions in the Bill are not adequate as discussed in the following paragraphs.

Structure of Municipal Revenue:

2.3 Municipal revenue comprises basically internal and external sources of revenue. Among the internal sources tax and non-tax revenue constitute the two components. Tax revenue consists of revenue accruing from property tax, * octroi/entry duty and other taxes such as tax on professions, trade and commerce, pilgrim tax, advertisement tax etc. while non-tax revenue is made up of user charges, fees and fines, rents and prices from created assets etc. Among the external sources of revenue are shared revenue and grants-in-aid from the State and the Centre.

2.4 Municipal taxes continue to be the principal source of municipal revenues. As per the sample study of 1986-87 conducted by the National Institute of Urban Affairs, more than 54 per cent of the revenue accrues from municipal taxes and 13.5 per cent from non-tax sources. State-wise comparison, however, reveal lack of uniformity regarding tax revenue being the major source. Further, revenues from such taxes are gradually declining and not responding to the increasing needs as desired presumably due to these sources being increasing inelastic to the changes in the economy. The shares of tax revenue decreased from 63.6 per cent of total municipal revenue in 1974-75 to 54.3 per cent in 1986-87. Information gathered by the Committee during evidence shows that the position may have worsened. Financial transfers from States thus constitute an extremely important source of municipal revenues after tax-revenue. As per the study of 1986-87 of the external sources, grants constitute 16.7 per cent and shared revenue 5.8 per cent. The study has further highlighted that revenue taxes and grants-in-aid vary with the size of the urban centres in a majority of cases. In the States of Jammu & Kashmir (59 per cent), Meghalaya (53 per cent) and Tripura (79 per cent) grants-in-aid are major source of municipal income.

Resource Gap

2.5 A number of studies conducted at the request of the Finance Commissions and by other Commissions/Committees have tried to estimate the revenue-expenditure gap that exists. Some of the major studies on municipal bodies which give a fairly vivid picture of the dismal plight of the municipal finances and requirement of resources to discharge even their obligatory functions, are mentioned below.

2.6 The Zakaria Committee (1963) estimated that even to maintain civic services at absolute minimum levels the gap between needs and resources was nearly Rs. 9 crores annually (minimum levels being defined in terms of per capita expenditure norms at 1960-61 prices). Similarly, the National Institute of Urban Affairs (1983) pointed out that at the level of services existing in 1979-80, municipal bodies need an additional Rs. 833 crores per annum for maintenance alone excluding the massive capital investment required for enhancing the quality of services.

2.7 The Task Force on Financing of Urban Development (1983) set up by Planning Commission taking into account the depreciation of existing and new infrastructure, backlog of existing population and expected increment to urban population has estimated the level of investment required for the period 1986-91 to be in the range of Rs. 6000-10,000 crores and Rs. 8000 crores (at 1980 prices) to be realistic and necessary for meeting urban infrastructure requirement in the country.

2.8 The estimates prepared by National Institute of Urban Affairs (1989) for the Ninth Finance Commission also pointed out that the 159 municipal bodies* covered in the sample above will alone require an amount of approximately Rs. 2681.4 crores over a period of 5 years corresponding to the period 1990-95, in order to be able to operate and maintain the core services at levels proposed by the Zakaria Committee. This amount is over and above the financial resources that the municipal bodies will mobilise during this period through their own efforts and resource transfers from States at existing levels of taxation and efficiency. The financial needs will, however, increase to Rs. 6992.6 crores if the municipal bodies choose to raise their spending levels to the levels being maintained by the "better of" municipal bodies.

2.9 While there has been continuous growth in the requirements of municipal bodies, there has not been commensurate growth of revenues. According to the Task Force on Financing of Urban Development (1983), the growth of municipal revenue in the past decade was 15 per cent per annum as compared to 17.5 per cent for the Central and State Governments. Further, there appeared to be a clear decline in the share of tax revenue and growing dependence on grants-in-aid from Government.

2.10 The analysis made by the National Institute of Urban Affairs regarding the transfer of funds from the States to municipal bodies has revealed that the transfer of funds in the form of shared taxes has been playing a much smaller role than grants-in-aid in the overall finance of municipal bodies. Whereas the grant component of municipal income contributed 16 per cent of their income in 1986-87, the State contribution by way of share of taxes was only 6 per cent in the same year.

2.11 The share of municipal governments in total tax revenue of the country have decreased from 8 per cent in 1960-61 to 4.5 per cent in 1980-81 while urban population has increased from 16 per cent of the total to 24 per cent during the same period. The share slumped to 3.4 per cent in 1986-87 as estimated by the National Institute of Urban Affairs based on the analysis of 157 sampled municipal bodies.

Augmentation of Resources

2.12 The estimates of resource gap is a clear pointer to the absolute need for augmenting the financial resource position of the municipal bodies to enable them to discharge their basic responsibilities. Efforts to bridge the gap requires an assessment of tax efforts, tax potential and efficiency of fiscal management in the local bodies. While every effort should be made to increase the taxation efforts at the municipality level with a view to tap the full potential, the responsibility for resources for financing urban services cannot be left only to the urban local bodies. Since the urban cities constitute in a big way to the state and the national economy it should also be the responsibility of the Centre as well as the States to dovetail creation and maintenance of urban economic infrastructure with the overall economic development and to share in the financial burden for the creation and maintenance of the urban infrastructure needed to increase urban productivity, provide greater employment opportunities and for improving the quality of life of its citizens. Towards this end, devolution of resources from Centre to States and States to municipalities is a necessary requirement. The mobilisation effort may be three-fold; (a) strengthening of the financial position through better tax collection and management; (b) restructuring the mechanism-of-funds from Central/State Governments to local bodies; and (c) mobilisation of additional resources through introduction of new taxes and innovative resource raising mechanism by the municipal bodies.

2.13 Tax and non-tax revenues constitute almost two-third of municipal incomes and this is a sphere where greater efforts could yield additional revenue. Though not much variation exists between States in the matter of tax powers entrusted to municipal governments, significant variation exists in the application of tax powers, rate structure of taxes and exemptions granted. While the need for strengthening the tax structure to enable the municipalities to retain their fiscal autonomy is unavoidable, the municipalities will have to provide certain basic civic amenities to citizens who belong economically to different groups irrespective of the per capita tax that is borne. A graded tax structure, therefore, needs to be adopted so that those who are 'better off' are taxed at a higher rate and the poorer sections of society can at least get the basic civic amenities at rates they can afford.

2.14 The major taxes collected by the municipal bodies include octroi and property tax. Revenue realised from property tax is affected by unrealistic progression of rates, varying exemptions and poor levels of collection. The realisation also remains static as almost one-third of the properties located in the cities are exempted from tax. This includes the Central Government properties in view of the provision in Article 285 of the Constitution. Revenue collection can be maximised by periodically monitoring and rationalising the rates and structure of property taxes and enhancing the service charges being paid in respect of Government properties. The instructions on the subject of service charges to be levied in respect of Central Government properties need to be reviewed and Government may consider reimbursement of an amount equal to the taxes payable on any other property as service charges. The existing instructions also provide for freezing of 'capital value' at levels at the time of construction/acquisition and also protects earlier agreements with some Departments like Railways. This has led to a lack of buoyancy in the service charges. These instructions need to be reviewed and necessary amendments introduced to put this on a basis which is fair to both Government of India and the urban local bodies.

2.15 Also the procedure for valuation of property would require to be based on composite area indices taking into account location, use, building quality and size. Apart from these, improvement in tax collection and phased liquidation of arrears locked up in legal disputes would result in additional revenue.

2.16 Octroi has been a major source of revenue through of late, several States have abolished octroi as imposition of this tax has resulted in undue harassment and leakage of revenue. According to the Task Force on financing of Urban Development, octroi revenue tends to grow by 16% per annum as against slightly under 10% in the case of property tax. Wherever octroi has been abolished the same has been compensated by grants-in-aid. However, the increase in grants-in-aid made to the municipalities has not been adequate to cover the loss due to abolition of octroi. This has somewhat reduced the flexibility of municipal revenue and created dependence on the State. In this context, it may be recalled that the National Institute of Urban Affairs has also observed that the level of services are generally poor in those States where octroi is not being levied. The urban local bodies are generally against any proposal for abolition of octroi since it gives them a substantial and regular (daily) source of income. But at the same time, the irritants in the present procedure for assessment and collection of this tax need to be removed. No attempt seems to have been made legally or administratively to simplify the methods of assessment and collection of octroi. The Committee feel that serious and sustained efforts should be made to improve, streamline and modernise the methods of assessment and collection of octroi with a view to plug leakage and reduce harassment. If the balance of advantage is considered to lie in abolishing octroi, suitable compensatory mechanism, capable of generating resources for the municipalities of the same buoyancy as octroi, should be evolved.

2.17 Revenue collection from other taxes is fairly insignificant and apparently the municipal bodies have not been interested in levying certain taxes despite the provisions in their Municipal Laws. These if levied would definitely generate some additional revenue.

2.18 New sources of revenue could be through levy of special conservancy tax on factories and large business establishments and tax on vacant land. Community participation particularly business participation in the creation and maintenance of social assets, pricing of land being given to industries in backward areas (to cover cost of acquisition, infrastructural development and cost of township development) all need to be explored and tapped to strengthen the existing weak resource base of the municipal bodies. To protect environment in municipalities and towns from the adverse affects of pollution, a growing menace with increasing urbanisation, imposition of a pollution tax can be considered.

2.19 Non-tax revenue basically takes the form of fees/duties, rent user charges etc. Streamlining and simplification of procedure with respect to fees/duties, betterment levy, levy of adequate user charges by the local bodies, proper pricing of existing infrastructure may augment the resource base.

2.20 Besides the above, municipal bodies have to economise on administrative spending and establishment.

2.21. Municipal bodies have not been receiving adequate revenue in respect of taxes having a local base like entertainment tax, motor vehicle tax, real estate registration etc.

2.22. The system of grants-in-aid prevalent in most States is on an ad-hoc basis and the National Commission on Urbanisation has gone on records to say that if the Seventh and Eighth Finance Commissions had laid down principles relating to grants-in-aid to the States out of the Consolidated Fund of India and stated what portion of this should be passed on to urban local bodies and on what basis, the problem would perhaps have been overcome. The National Institute of Urban Affairs has suggested that every State should constitute a Finance Board to laydown the mechanism for devolution of funds to municipal bodies from the Consolidated Fund of the State; periodic review to take into account inflation, population growth and other factors, linking of grants to the resource mobilisation efforts of the municipal body, regular flow of grant and equalisation on the expenditure side. Also some State Commissions have suggested assigning due weightage to the special problems of each municipal body and bridging of gap between service standards by extending capital funds for implementing projects and recurring nature grants for operational and maintenance purposes.

2.23. Generally plan funds for urban development are spent through State agencies and once the assets are created, the responsibility for their maintenance rests with the municipal bodies. This neither envisages non-plan assistance for State agencies nor assures resources to the municipal authorities creating a gap in resources required for maintenance. Further, non-integration of municipal plans with district and State plans also result in no regular devolution of resources.

2.24. Lack of a mechanism for regular assessment of the fiscal resources gap that arise on account of increasing urbanisation also do not ensure sufficient devolution of funds to the local bodies. Additionally, apart from HUDCO, there is no apex financial institution for urban development. The result has been that there is no access to the capital market which is a great handicap.

2.25. The Eighth and Ninth Finance Commissions deliberating on the magnitude of the problem have come to the conclusion that local bodies need support to discharge their ever expanding multifarious responsibilities. The Eighth Finance Commission did not recommend any grants-in-aid for raising the service levels of urban local bodies or make any provisions for dealing with the urban congestion problems of Bombay, Calcutta and Madras as in their view, the Planning Commission was the "appropriate body to deal with these problems". Making a significant departure, the Ninth Finance Commission, however recommended a one-time grant of Rs. 50 crores each to the Governments of Maharashtra and West Bengal for environmental improvement of slums and provision of basic amenities in the cities of Bombay and Calcutta.

2.26. Planning Commission commenting on urban services in their Seventh Five Year Plan document have stated "The urban conglomerations by their very nature, need a minimum of basic services for their healthy existence. However, the state of most of our urban areas in this respect is far from satisfactory, in fact in general the picture is extremely bad. Apart from the fact that many of the municipal bodies are moribund...have undeveloped or eroded tax systems and suffer from lack of capital funds for development". A comprehensive plan for urban development including inter-alia revitalisation of civic bodies and through going reforms of municipal tax system and administration in general has been recommended by the Planning Commission. The plan document further states "As the problems created by rapid urbanisation are stupendous and have wide-ranging social and political ramifications, there is national concern for checking the deterioration of conditions in our cities and towns. In this context, Central participation and assistance in this vital area is justified."

2.27. While the Eighth Plan has recognised the need for rationalisation of existing tax and non-tax resources of metropolitan cities and the need for devolution of funds from States to the local government, it is unfortunate that there has been no specific recommendation (except for the scheme of IDSMT) in regard to the sharing by Government of India of the responsibility in meeting the financial requirements of urban local bodies.

2.28. It is clear from the foregoing that both the Planning Commission and the Finance Commission have been seized of the problem of deteriorating urban civic services and the imperative need to strengthen the municipal bodies politically, administratively and financially. Municipal bodies to discharge their obligatory functions will require augmentation of funds. Availability of resources should be both commensurate and elastic keeping pace with their growing needs. Apart from augmenting internal sources, methods need to be devised for enlarging the area of assured devolution and the quantum of assistance that will flow from the Centre to States and from States to the Municipalities.

2.29. The Centre-State fiscal relations are governed by constitutional provisions. Unfortunately there is no such constitutional mechanism at present which provides for a regular assessment of the fiscal resources gap that exists in municipalities on account of the increasing responsibilities thrust upon them by the pace of urbanisation and growth of the urban economy, and for putting the devolution of resources to urban local bodies on a rational and firmer footing.

2.30 In view of the position stated above, the Committee endorse the provision in the Bill for the setting up of Finance Commission at the State level. The Committee further are of the opinion that the State Finance Commission proposed in the Bill should also specifically consider the measures needed to improve the financial position of the Municipalities and the extent to which the Consolidated fund of the State needs to be augmented by assistance from the Government of India to supplement the resources of the Municipalities. The Committee are also of the opinion that the Central Finance Commission should consider measures to augment the Consolidated Fund of a State to supplement the resources of the Municipalities in the State on the basis of the recommendations made by the Finance Commission of the State. Article 243Y has accordingly been amended and a new clause 3 added for amendment of Article 280 of the Constitution.

2.31. The Joint Committee recommend that the Bill, as amended, be passed.

K. P. SINGH DEO,

Chairman,

Joint Committee.

NEW DELHI:
July, 1992.

THE CONSTITUTION (SEVENTY-THIRD AMENDMENT) BILL, 1991

(AS REPORTED BY THE JOINT COMMITTEE)

[Words underlined or side-lined indicate the amendments suggested by the Committee, asterisks indicate omissions.]

further to amend the Constitution of India.

BE it enacted by Parliament in the Forty-third Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

1. (1) This Act may be called the Constitution (Seventy-third Amendment) Act, 1992.

(2) It shall come into force on such date as the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, appoint.

2. After Part IX of the Constitution, the following Part shall be inserted, namely:—

'PART IXATHE MUNICIPALITIES

243P. In this Part, unless the context otherwise requires,—

(d) "Municipal area" means the territorial area of a Municipality as is notified by the Government of a State;

(e) "Municipality" means an institution of self-government constituted under article 243Q;

(f) "Panchayat" means a Panchayat constituted under article 243B;

(g) "population" means the population as ascertained at the last preceding census of which the relevant figures have been published.

Constitution of Municipalities.

243Q. (1) There shall be constituted in every State,—

(a) a Nagar Panchayat (by whatever name called) for a transitional area, that is to say, an area in transition from a rural area to an urban area;

(b) a Municipal Council for a smaller urban area; and

(c) a Municipal Corporation for a larger urban area, in accordance with the provisions of this Part.

(2) In this article, "a transitional area" "a smaller urban area" or "a larger urban area" means such area as the Government of a State may, having regard to the population of the area, the density of the population therein, the revenue generated for local administration, the percentage of employment in non-agricultural activities, the economic importance or such other factors as it may deem fit, specify by public notification for the purposes of this Part.

Composition of
palities.

243R. (1) Save as provided in clause (2), all the seats in a Municipality shall be filled by persons chosen by direct election from the territorial constituencies in the Municipal area and for this purpose each Municipal area shall be divided into territorial constituencies to be known as wards.

(2) The Legislature of a State may, by law, provide,—

(a) for the representation in a Municipality of—

(i) persons having special knowledge or experience in Municipal administration;

(ii) the members of the House of the People and the members of the Legislative Assembly of the State representing constituencies which comprise wholly or partly the Municipal area;

(iii) the members of the Council of States and the members of the Legislative Council of the State registered as electors within the Municipal area;

(iv) the Chairpersons of the Committees constituted under clause (5) of article 243S:

Provided that the persons referred to in paragraph (i) shall not have the right to vote in the meetings of the Municipality;

(b) the manner of election of the Chairperson of a Municipality.

243S. (1) There shall be constituted Wards Committees, consisting of one or more wards, within the territorial area of a Municipality having a population of three lakhs or more.

(2) The Legislature of State may, by law, make provision with respect to—

(a) the composition and the territorial area of a Wards Committee;

(b) the manner in which the seats in a Wards Committee shall be filled.

(3) A member of a Municipality representing a ward within the territorial area of the Wards Committee shall be a member of that Committee.

(4) Where a Wards Committee consists of—

(a) one ward, the member representing that ward in the Municipality; or

(b) two or more wards, one of the members representing such wards in the Municipality elected by the members of the Wards Committee, shall be the Chairperson of that Committee.

(5) Nothing in this article shall be deemed to prevent the Legislature of a State from making any provision for the constitution of Committees in addition to the Wards Committees.

243T. (1) Seats shall be reserved for the Scheduled Castes and the Scheduled Tribes in every Municipality and the number of seats so reserved shall bear, as nearly as may be, the same proportion to the total number of seats to be filled by direct election in that Municipality as the population of the Scheduled Castes in the Municipal area or of the Scheduled Tribes in the Municipal area bears to the total population of that area and such seats may be allotted by rotation to different constituencies in a Municipality.

(2) Not less than one-third of the total number of seats reserved under clause (1) shall be reserved for women belonging to the Scheduled Castes or, as the case may be, the Scheduled Tribes.

Constitution and composition of Wards Committees, etc.

Reservation of seats.

(3) Not less than one-third (including the number of seats reserved for women belonging to the Scheduled Castes and the Scheduled Tribes) of the total number of seats to be filled by direct election in every Municipality shall be reserved for women and such seats may be allotted by rotation to different constituencies in a Municipality.

(4) The office of Chairpersons in the Municipalities shall be reserved for the Scheduled Castes, the Scheduled Tribes and women in such manner as the Legislature of a State may, by law, provide.

(5) The reservation of seats under clauses (1) and (2) and the reservation of office of Chairpersons (other than the reservation for women) under clause (4) shall cease to have effect on the expiration of the period specified in article 334.

(6) Nothing in this Part shall prevent the Legislature of a State from making any provision for reservation of seats in any Municipality or office of Chairpersons in the Municipalities in favour of backward class of citizens.

Duration of Municipalities, etc..

243U. (1) Every Municipality, unless sooner dissolved under any law for the time being in force, shall continue for five years from the date appointed for its first meeting and no longer ***.

(2) An election to constitute a Municipality shall be completed,—

- (a) before the expiry of its duration specified in clause (1);
- (b) before the expiration of a period of six months from the date of its dissolution:

Provided that if the Legislature of the State passes a resolution to the effect that due to drought, flood, earthquake or any other natural calamity or emergency, the election cannot be held within the period specified in sub-clause (b), the said election shall be completed within a period of one year from the date of dissolution of the Municipality.

(3) The Legislature of a State may, by law, make provisions with respect to the suspension or dissolution of a Municipality:

Provided that before a Municipality is suspended or dissolved, it shall be given a reasonable opportunity of being heard by such authority as is constituted by such law:

Provided further that the suspension of a Municipality shall not affect the continuation of the Committees constituted under article 243S.

Disqualifications for membership.

243V. (1) A person shall be disqualified for being chosen as, and for being, a member of a Municipality—

* * * * *

(a) if he is so disqualified by or under any law for the time being in force for the purposes of elections to the Legislature of the State concerned:

Provided that no person shall be disqualified on the ground that he is less than twenty-five years of age, if he has attained the age of twenty-one years;

(b) if he is so disqualified by or under any law made by the Legislature of the State.

(2) If any question arises as to whether a member of a Municipality has become subject to any of the disqualifications mentioned in clause (1), the question shall be referred for the decision of such authority and in such manner as the Legislature of a State may, by law, provide.

243W. Subject to the provisions of this Constitution, the Legislature of a State may, by law, endow—

(a) the Municipalities with such powers and authority as may be necessary to enable them to function as institutions of self-government and such law may contain provisions for the devolution of powers and responsibilities upon Municipalities, subject to such conditions as may be specified therein, with respect to—

(i) the preparation of plans for economic development and social justice;

(ii) the performance of functions and the implementation of schemes as may be entrusted to them including those in relation to the matters listed in the Twelfth Schedule;

(b) the Committees with such powers and authority as may be necessary to enable them to carry out the responsibilities conferred upon them including those in relation to the matters listed in the Twelfth Schedule.

243X. The Legislature of a State may, by law,—

(a) authorise a Municipality to levy, collect and appropriate such taxes, duties, tolls and fees in accordance with such procedure and subject to such limits;

(b) assign to a Municipality such taxes, duties, tolls and fees levied and collected by the State Government for such purposes and subject to such conditions and limits;

(c) provide for making such grants-in-aid to the Municipalities from the Consolidated Fund of the State; and

(d) provide for constitution of such Funds for crediting all moneys received, respectively, by or on behalf of the Municipalities and also for the withdrawal of such moneys therefrom, as may be specified in the law.

Powers, authority and responsibilities of Municipalities, etc.

Power to impose taxes by, and Funds of, the Municipalities.

Constitution of Finance Commission to review financial position.

243Y. (1) The Governor of a State shall as soon as may be within one year from the commencement of the Constitution (Seventy-third Amendment) Act, 1992, and thereafter at the expiration of every fifth year, constitute a Finance Commission to review the financial position of the Municipalities and to make recommendations to the Governor as to—

(a) the principles which should govern—

(i) the distribution between the State and the Municipalities of the net proceeds of the taxes, duties, tolls and fees leviable by the State, which may be divided between them under this Part and the allocation between the Municipalities at all levels of their respective shares of such proceeds;

(ii) the determination of the taxes, duties, tolls and fees which may be assigned to, or appropriated by, the Municipalities;

(iii) the grants-in-aid to the Municipalities from the Consolidated Fund of the State;

(b) the measures needed to improve the financial position of the Municipalities;

(c) the extent to which the Consolidated Fund of the State needs to be augmented by the assistance from the Government of India to supplement the resources of the Municipalities;

(d) any other matter referred to the Finance Commission by the Governor in the interests of sound finance of the Municipalities.

(2) The Legislature of a State may, by law, provide for the composition of the Commission, the qualifications which shall be requisite for appointment as members thereof and the manner in which they shall be selected.

(3) The Commission shall determine their procedure and shall have such powers in the performance of their functions as the Legislature of the State may, by law, confer on them.

(4) The Governor shall cause every recommendation made by the Commission under this article together with an explanatory memorandum as to the action taken thereon to be laid before the Legislature of the State.

243Z. (1) The accounts of the Municipal Corporations constituted under article 243Q shall be kept in such form as the Governor may, on the advice of the Comptroller and Auditor-General of India, prescribe.

(2) The Comptroller and Auditor-General of India shall cause the accounts of the said Municipal Corporations to be audited in such manner as he may deem fit and the reports of the Comptroller and Auditor-General shall be submitted to the Governor of the State, who shall cause them to be laid before the Legislature of the State and before the Municipal Corporation concerned.

Form of accounts of Municipal Corporations and audit of accounts of such Corporations.

243ZA. Subject to the provisions of this Constitution, the Legislature of a State may, by law, make provision with respect to all matters relating to, or in connection with, elections to the Municipalities ***

Powers of Legislature of a State to make provisions with respect to elections to Municipalities.

243ZB. The provisions of this Part shall apply to the Union territories and shall, in their application to a Union territory, have effect as if the references to the Governor of a State were references to the Administrator of the Union territory appointed under article 239 and references to the Legislature or the Legislative Assembly of a State were references in relation to a Union territory having a Legislative Assembly, to that Legislative Assembly:

Provided that the President may, by public notification, direct that the provisions of this Part  shall apply to any Union territory or part thereof subject to such exceptions and modifications as he may specify in the notification.

243ZC. (1) Nothing in this Part shall apply to the Scheduled Areas referred to in clause (1), and the tribal areas referred to in clause (2), of article 244.

Part not to apply to certain areas.

(2) Notwithstanding anything in this Constitution, Parliament may, by law, extend the provisions of this Part to the Scheduled Areas and the tribal areas referred to in clause (1) subject to such exceptions and modifications as may be specified in such law, if the Legislature of a State passes a resolution to that effect, and no such law shall be deemed to be an amendment of this Constitution for the purposes of article 368.

243ZD. (1) There shall be constituted in every State at the district level a District Planning Committee to consolidate the plans prepared by the Panchayats and the Municipalities in the district and to prepare a draft development plan for the district as a whole.

Committee for district planning.

(2) The Legislature of a State may, by law, make provision with respect to—

- (a) the composition of the District Planning Committees;
- (b) the manner in which the seats in such Committees shall be filled:

Provided that not less than four-fifths of the total number of members of such Committee shall be elected by, and from amongst, the elected members of the Panchayat at the district level and of the Municipalities in the district in proportion to the ratio between the population of the rural areas and of the urban areas in the district;

(c) the functions relating to district planning which may be assigned to such Committees;

(d) the manner in which the Chairpersons of such Committees shall be chosen.

(3) Every District Planning Committee shall, in preparing the draft development plan,—

(a) have regard to—

(i) matters of common interest between the Panchayats and the Municipalities including spatial planning, sharing of water and other physical and natural resources, the integrated development of infrastructure and environmental conservation;

(ii) the extent and type of available resources whether financial or otherwise;

(b) consult such institutions and organisations as the Governor may, by order, specify.

(4) The Chairperson of every District Planning Committee shall forward the development plan, as recommended by such Committee, to the Government of the State.

Committee for Metropolitan Planning.

243ZE. (1) There shall be constituted in every Metropolitan area a Metropolitan Planning Committee to prepare a draft development plan for the Metropolitan area as a whole.

(2) The Legislature of a State may, by law, make provision with respect to—

(a) the composition of the Metropolitan Planning Committees;

(b) the manner in which the seats in such Committees shall be filled:

Provided that not less than two-thirds of the members of such Committee shall be elected by, and from amongst, the elected members of the Municipalities and Chairpersons of the Panchayats in the Metropolitan area in proportion to the ratio between the population of the Municipalities and of the Panchayats in that area;

(c) the representation in such Committees of the Government of India and the Government of the State and of such organisations and institutions as may be deemed necessary for carrying out the functions assigned to such Committees;

(d) the functions relating to planning and coordination for the Metropolitan area which may be assigned to such Committees;

(e) the manner in which the Chairpersons of such Committees shall be chosen.

(3) Every Metropolitan Planning Committee shall, in preparing the draft development plan,—

(a) have regard to—

(i) the plans prepared by the Municipalities and the Panchayats in the Metropolitan area;

- (ii) matters of common interest between the Municipalities and the Panchayats, including co-ordinated spatial planning of the area, sharing of water and other physical and natural resources, the integrated development of infrastructure and environmental conservation;
- (iii) the overall objectives and priorities set by the Government of India and the Government of the State;
- (iv) the extent and nature of investments likely to be made in the Metropolitan area by agencies of the Government of India and of the Government of the State and other available resources whether financial or otherwise;

(b) consult such institutions and organisations as the Governor may, by order, specify.

(4) The Chairperson of every Metropolitan Planning Committee shall forward the development plan, as recommended by such Committee, to the Government of the State.

243ZF. Notwithstanding anything in this Part, any provision of any law relating to Municipalities in force in a State immediately before the commencement of the Constitution (Seventy-third Amendment) Act, 1992, which is inconsistent with the provisions of this Part, shall continue to be in force until amended or repealed by a competent Legislature or other competent authority or until the expiration of one year from such commencement, whichever is earlier:

Provided that all the Municipalities existing immediately before such commencement shall continue till the expiration of their duration, unless sooner dissolved by a resolution passed to that effect by the Legislative Assembly of that State or, in the case of a State having a Legislative Council, by each House of the Legislature of that State.

243ZG. Notwithstanding anything in this Constitution,—

(a) the validity of any law relating to the delimitation of constituencies or the allotment of seats to such constituencies, made or purporting to be made under article 243ZA shall not be called in question in any court;

(b) no election to any Municipality shall be called in question except by an election petition presented to such authority and in such manner as is provided for by or under any law made by the Legislature of a State.'

3. In clause (3) of article 280 of the Constitution, sub-clause (c) shall be relettered as sub-clause (d) and before sub-clause (d) as so relettered, the following sub-clause shall be inserted, namely:—

"(c) the measures needed to augment the Consolidated Fund of a State to supplement the resources of the Municipalities in the State on the basis of the recommendations made by the Finance Commission of the State;"

Continuance of existing laws and Municipalities.

Bar to interference by courts in electoral matters.

Amendment of article 280.

Addition
of Twelfth
Schedule.

4. After the Eleventh Schedule to the Constitution, the following Schedule shall be added, namely:—

"TWELFTH SCHEDULE

(Article 243W)

1. Urban planning including town planning.
2. Regulation of land-use and construction of buildings.
3. Planning for economic and social development.
